FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Capitol Symphonic Youth Orchestras (TCSYO) present: "Spring Follies" concert - Sunday, June 8, 2014

Alexandria, Virginia: Promising young musicians from the Washington area will bring classical music to life as The Capitol Symphonic Youth Orchestras (TCSYO) presents its "Spring Follies" concert on Sunday, June 8, 2014. Led by Artistic Music Director and Conductor Dr. Cheri Collins, these talented students will perform a wide range of music, including Ravel's Bolero, Hofeldt's Lullaby, Dvorak's Symphony No. 8, and Mozart's The Marriage of Figaro.

The concert takes place at the Rachel M. Schlesinger Concert Hall and Arts Center at the Alexandria Campus of Northern Virginia Community College, 3001 North Beauregard Street, Alexandria, Virginia, at 2:00 PM.

TCSYO is a Fairfax County based non-profit organization and its mission is to provide a creative environment where young musicians from the Washington DC area come together to rehearse and perform. Now in its third year, TCSYO offers area students the chance to take their skills to a higher level with both Symphonic and Chamber Orchestras.

The renowned Dr. Collins, a specialist in training young musicians, brings energy, passion and global experience to TCSYO. With her magnetic personality and inspirational approach, she brings out the best in her students. "The performance level of our musicians is amazing, and so is their commitment to these moving musical works," said Dr. Collins. "Our spring concert is another chance for us to entertain and enlighten our audience, and show the public what TCSYO can do."
